Relating . . . to Each Other

What is the real meaning of relationship? At CJC we pride developing wholesome relationships. We relate in groups, one-on one, male-to-female, teacher-to-student, employer-to-employee, female-to-female and male-to-male. Through these wholesome relationships we are better able to relate to the world.

Dedication

Because the word dedication means to commit oneself to a particular course of thought or action, the Coahoma Junior College and Agricultural High School Family proudly dedicates the 1983 Coahoman to you — Mr. Earl Gooden.

For many years you have given your service to Coahoma Junior College and the community as an educator — par excellence, a dynamic leader, a humanist, and a Christian.

Your many attributes have won you the respect and the admiration of your associates and, they have set wholesome examples for others to follow.

May you continue to endeavor to lift — the minds, the hearts, and the spirits of those you encounter.

You are a true friend to mankind and we love you.

Mrs. Robinson, secretary to Dean, takes instructions from Mr. Gooden.

Dean Gooden aides students.

Dean Gooden stays abreast with the outside world.

Coahomans,

Our year together is rapidly coming to a close. Shortly, we will be separating and traveling different avenues. But, there is one thing that will always tie us together, our yearbook. In years to come, we can always pick up our yearbook, look through it, and reminisce about the good times and the fun-crazy things we shared.

Throughout the book, we have tried to carry out our theme, "Relating . . . to each other," by featuring you relating in groups, one-on-one, female-to-female, teacher-to-student, male-to-female and male-to-male. We hope that we have established wholesome relationships so that you can relate to the world.

We appreciate the cooperation of Mrs. Josephine P. Rhymes, our sponsor, Mr. Henry Dorsey, our artist, Mr. Timothy Burrell, Mr. John Mayo, and Mr. A. Cowart, our photographers, and our dedicated and industrious staff.

Thank you,
Tonya V. Coburn
Assistant Editor

Editor's Message

Our Annual is a reflection of the year in review. In producing this year's "83" Coahoman, the high school Annual Staff has tried to show life as it is at Aggie. The work was demanding but rewarding. Getting full cooperation from the students, the teachers, and the Annual Staff as well made the hectic routine somewhat simpler.

Enjoying the "highs" as well as the "lows", I am honored to have served as your 1982-83 Annual Staff Editor. I take this time to thank the Tiger Staff and others who have helped in producing the 1982-83 Coahoman.
